IT CAREER PATHWAYS

HOW TO WORK WITH CORPORATE IT RECRUITERS

Join Three CITIGROUP Recruiters in a Panel Discussion

Wednesday, June 17, 2009
4 New York Plaza, 3rd Floor

11:00 AM – 1:00 PM Eastern Daylight Time

- Learn what motivates hiring professionals to respond to candidates
- Gain a corporate recruiter's perspective on the processes and tools they use to source candidates
- Learn what HR recruiters look for to present the strongest candidates to hiring managers

PRESENTERS

Assistant Vice President within the North America Staffing Division at Citi. Vilma has provided recruiting support to Citi's Operations groups that are part of Smith Barney, Alternative Investments, and the Global Institutional Bank (which includes Private Bank, Global Transaction Services, and Corporate & Investment Bank).

Senior Recruiter at Citi, supporting the North American Technology Infrastructure group. In his 4 years with Citi, he has been responsible for hiring across a variety of IT skill sets including Data Center Operations, Voice/Network/Desktop Engineering, as well as UNIX and Windows Systems Administration.

20 years of experience in Human Resources with strong emphasis on Staffing and Talent Acquisition. He has been a member of the Citigroup North America Staffing organization for the last 5 years, and concentrates on strategic and executive level roles across Citigroup Global Operations and Technology.

FACILITATOR

Steven Davis
Coached and placed thousands of IT professionals in diverse positions through his roles as VP of the IT Practice in global staffing firms and as a Counselor with Career Services. Steven has been entrusted with many exclusive job search agreements from hiring managers as a result of his success in matching candidates with opportunities of best fit.